ASMOAF is registered with The Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission (ACNC), which is the independent national regulator of charities.

The ACNC has been set up to achieve the following objects:

- maintain, protect and enhance public trust and confidence in the sector through increased accountability and transparency
- support and sustain a robust, vibrant, independent and innovative not-for-profit sector
- promote the reduction of unnecessary regulatory obligations on the sector
- In order to achieve the objects, the ACNC:
 - registers organisations as charities
 - helps charities understand and meet their obligations through information, guidance, advice and other support
 - helps the public understand the work of the not-for profit sector through information, guidance, advice and other support
 - maintains a free and searchable public register so that anyone can look up information about registered charities
 - is working with state and territory governments (as well as individual federal, state and territory government agencies) to develop a 'report-once, use-often' reporting framework for charities
